

May 20, 1969

Property and Supply Office
CIA

Development Staff

STAT

STAT

We understand that your [redacted] 9 1/2" Processor has been declared surplus to your needs.

STAT

We can use the processor [redacted] and therefore, request that it be transferred to this Agency.

STAT
STAT

We will arrange to pick up the processor from your loading dock and transport it to our laboratory when you notify us that the necessary paper work has been processed through your organization.

We will need some advance notice so we can arrange for transportation to the laboratory.

When you have a definite date, please give [redacted] call. [redacted]

STAT
STAT
STAT

We understand, also, that the [redacted] Processor may be declared surplus to your needs.

STAT

We know that this machine can be effectively utilized [redacted] therefore should you decide to surplus the machine, we request that it be transferred to this Agency. We will assume responsibility and furnish the personnel required to disassemble the machine and move it to the loading dock and onto the truck.

STAT
STAT

Declass Review by
NIMA/DOD

- 2 -

Again we would require some advanced notice to arrange for the necessary personnel and transportation. Disassembly could be arranged for a week-end should you so desire.

STAT

